

Given Away November 14th.

A Mode's Air Tight Heating Stove. Come down right away and get a ticket free.
Don't send the children.

SCOTT HARDWARE CO.,

313-324 BROADWAY - PADUCAH, KY.
(SIGN OF BIG HATCHET.)

.. NOW WE ARE ALL FOR ..

McKinley.

We have fought the good fight, the battle is over, and the victory won; now for PROGRESS, PROSPERITY and PEACE. Come down to business and come to.

DORIAN'S

—FOR—
Dry Goods and Fine Shoes, Ladies' Shoes, Men's Shoes, Misses' Shoes, Children's Shoes
Ladies' and Mens' Furnishing Goods,
Bibles, Prayer Books, &c.

We want the patronage as well as good wares of every friend and neighbor and every body else. Honest value and square dealing guaranteed for your money.

JOHN J. DORIAN,
205 BROADWAY.

Opposite Lang's Drug Store.

SCHOOL SHOES

Now Ready. Best Sorts--SMALLEST Prices.

We are going to sell our Children's Shoes at the VERY SMALLEST PROFIT.

We want to draw your children's trade; we want your children to grow up in our Shoes, then they will trade with us all their lives. If you are not trading with us, ask one of our customers about our Shoes, and about our way of treating our clients—and their feet.

George Bernhard.

ESTABLISHED 1865.

WILLIAM NAGEL.

THE LEADING JEWELER.

Diamonds, Watches, Clocks,

FINE JEWELRY AND SPECTACLES.

FINE WATCH REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

Cor. Broadway and Third Streets.

PADUCAH, KY.

A Gold Crown

Is rather to be chosen than a great toothache. Our crown and bridge work is of the very best material, and constructed in the most skillful manner, insuring beauty and durability. Our prices are made to suit hard times or good times and are payable either in gold or silver. Especial attention paid to the care of children's teeth, and we warrant all our work.

Over Lang's Drug Store.

DR. C. E. WHITESIDES.

First-Class Watch Repairing vs. Living Prices.
Botch Work vs. Cheap Prices.

DOES YOUR WATCH STOP?
IS YOUR WATCH UNRELIABLE?
CAN'T YOU GET YOUR WATCH CLOSELY REGULATED?
Has Your Watch Been Required by Others and Does Not Give Satisfaction?

If you are having trouble with your time piece bring it to JOHN J.
BLEICH'S Jewelry Store, let us examine it for you, and if you have a watch that can be made a good time piece we will tell you so. We do not claim to be the cheapest watch repairers in town at the start, but we do claim to have THE BEST watchmakers, give you the best satisfaction and be the cheapest to you in the long run. To give satisfaction with first-class watch work is our special pride.

223 BROADWAY.

JOHN J. BLEICH.

Chris. Leibel,

—DEALER IN—

Groceries and Provisions, Wines, Liquors, Cigars, Tobaccos, Notions, Hay, CORN, BEAN, OATS AND FEED.

Numbers 701, 703 and 705, Corner Seventh and Jackson streets.

10c 9c 9c
Old "Lee" Anthracite, $8.25 Ton.

We Will Appreciate a Share of Your Patronage.

Office Cor. Ninth and Harrison.

ASK FOR
Gebhart Cigar
Clear Havana Filler 5c.

McClean's Fotograf Studio,
405 Broadway, Allison's Old Stand.

The Only Fotografer in the City Making the New Embossed Crystallotype Fotografis.

He also makes some of the finest and best Fotografis and Platinotypes made in the city. His agents will commence canvassing the city the first of the week. Look at his samples. C. E. McCLEAN.

was an enormously fleshy old sister
who was fond in her expressions of enthusiasm with which her heaving bosom was filled and was shouting
"Hurrah for McKinley" at the top
most altitude of her stentorian vocal organs. It was there that George saw his chance, and stepping up to the old woman he pointed out Mr.
Nance, and said: "That is our new president; that's Mr. Mc-Kinley." No sooner had he spoken than the old lady
made a dive for the side of the carriage, reached in and grabbed Mr.
Nance by the hand and congratulated him on his success and expressed her joy thereat. She also dilated at length on the great benefits of a gold standard currency and ran down a silver basis as a most reprehensible policy as she trudged beside the vehicle. Whether it was that Mr.
Nance was embarrassed at being interrupted by an undistinguished personage or was weary of the old woman's chatter, he ran his hand in his pocket and gave her a dollar.

Brensburg, Ky.
Rev. Wilson A. T'hey filled his regular appointment at Bethlehem, Ill. (Johnson county) Sunday, [the 8th inst. His next appointment will close his work at that place for the year. Brother T'hey has done a wonderful work in Illinois and is well liked by all his acquaintance. He will likely preach for them in 1907.
The election is over. McKinley is elected, and all you hear out of the Democrats and Populists is they have got beaten and they'd better do something.
Mr. Tom Stringer will soon become the blacksmith to occupy the T. N. Walton stand at this place.
Walton is going west.
Mrs. H. C. Freeman, of Calvert City, is visiting in Brensburg this week. She is the guest of A. H.
Freeman, M. H. and Mrs. Beatrice Field.
It is reported that W. W. Nimmo keeps the best postoffice in the county.
I beg to remain,
Yours,
John J.

MANY TIMES A WITNESS.

Yet City Physician Trontman
Never Succeeded in Getting
Anything for It.

"I have been here nearly four years," remarked City Physician Trontman this morning at the city hall, "and have testified at every term of the circuit court, nearly every one of the county courts and
an infinite number of times in the police and magistrates' courts."
"Well, what about it?" asked some one.

"Nothing," was the reply, "except that I never did receive a cent for the time and trouble I took to appear as a witness. I got paid one day and concluded that I never would testify again. I paid no attention to a summons and the next thing I knew they had me arrested
on an attachment."

The doctor left at this juncture for
the court house, presumably to testify again.

Get the best. St. Bernard Coal, St. Bernard Silver Coal, Phil-
burgh Coal and Anthracite Coal
from the St. Bernard Coal Co., incorporated, 423 Broadway.
Telephone No. 8. Oct. 21

HE'S INOFFENSIVE.

But She Wants a Divorce Just the Same.

Mrs. Lula P. Hamline today brought suit in the circuit court against her husband, George Hamline, for divorce.

They are well known residents of the county, and have been married for several years.

She is a good looking young
woman and in her petition charges her husband with being an idle, in-offensive, good-for-nothing sort of a fellow.

Non-support is the plea.

Try the old reliable St. Bernard
Coal and get the best, if you want
the most burn for the money. St.
Bernard Coal Co., incorporated, 423 Broadway. Telephone No. 8.
Oct. 21

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey cures coughs for young and old. Most cough medicines simply helps you cough. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey helps you not to cough. See the difference? Would you like to try it? 25 cents gets you the biggest quarter bottle of cough medicine you ever saw. It is particularly valuable for those who can not stand the strain of coughing. Ask your druggist for it. Take no substitute.
There is nothing so good as Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. Sold by Ochs-enger & Walker.

Subscribe for the Six and induce
your neighbor to do the same.

Bob Austin had his
of way bills and a long
of ears in his train as he waved
the "high ball" to his eagle eye this
a. m. You can bet that Bob "will get there."

It is said that Engineer Sany Herring is hankering after his first love
and is talking of purchasing a steamboat. Too many boats choking stumps now, Sandy. Better stick to the rails.

Judge "Bill" Reed, of Benton,
and Mr. A. B. Lamb, of Paris, Tenn., two of the company's favorite attorneys, went out on No. 50 last p. m. They are at present defending the company's interests in the U. S. court here.

The party who went over to the
"deep tangled wildwood" of Mas-sac on a hunting expedition "yesterday" returned about dark. The sum total of their spoils was two sapsuckers and a pocketful of pecans, but they say they had lots of fun.

Gen. Manager Thomas, a number of other officials, and a party of invited guests passed over the road yesterday from Nashville to Memphis
on a hunting and fishing camping expedition at Horn Lake, Miss.
They occupied Manager Thomas'
special car, and it took three large transfer wagons to transport their outfit.

Engineer Ben Rodgers on the 306
came in away ahead of time yesterday with his face shaved as clean as a snowflake and sleek as slippery elm juice. The boys say he sacrificed his Napoleonic hairstyle in payment
of a wager he made on the late election. Turn them out again Ben and ambush that envy below your nasal feature.

Billy Kane tells a good joke on one of the boys who formerly drove an express wagon. His horse was almost as thin as a vapor, and he was guzzled by the other jehus' unmerciful-
ly. One day he came into the store where Billy was counter hopping and bought a nickel's worth of corn and dime's worth of hay, gave it to his horse and said, "Now eat till you burst!"

Since the transfer hoats ceased using the incline that institution has a deserted appearance, and has become the favorite hang out for the feather dandies, as with pole, line and seductive bait, he entices the flimsy tribe to change their place of residence from the limpid waters of the placid Tennessee to the seething frying pan.

Dodgers announcing the appearance of the "Kentucky Colonel" under the name of "Chock full up"
to be muzzled" are out. It is to be in pamphlet form and issued each Sunday morning by the "Kentucky Colonel Publishing Co." of the city.
Should it be loaded with choice literature as heavily as we have seen this namesake on various occasions, we predict a long and extensive "jag"
for it.

Geo. Gaies, he of the tank flag renewed, tells a good joke on Mr.
Jno. Nance, the bent blacksmith, for whom he wields the sledge. George says that in the grand parade last Tuesday night Mr. Nance occupied with several friends a prominent place in the procession seated in a carriage with a stovepipe chapeau covering his hairless cranium. A few days prior to the jubilee Mr.
Nance, thinking that the few gray hairs interspersed among the golden threads of his heavy mustache gave him too venerable a look, had the tonorial artist to remove it. When he appeared at the shops Monday morning it was the general remark
that he bore a striking resemblance
to the pictures of his political idol, McKinley, and he did make a fair
appearance as the procession wound
its way along the streets under the electric lights, and amid the flashes
of the many colored pyrotechnics.
At the corner of Ninth and Broadway an immense crowd of colored people were congregated to witness the parade.

Runaway Boys.
A telegram was received at police
headquarters this afternoon from Mr.
M. M. Marshall, of Dyersburg, asking that a lookout be kept for his two sons and a colored boy who ran away from home last night. Nothing has been seen of them here.

Made Settlement Today.
Ex-Sheriff R. P. Stanley today
made settlement with the county. He was paid $1,000 for his service, and the county was paid $1,000 for his services.

WORK.

McClean's Fotograf Studio,
405 Broadway, Allison's Old Stand.

The Only Fotografer in the City Making the New Embossed Crystallotype Fotografis.

He also makes some of the finest and best Fotografis and Platinotypes
made in the city. His agents will commence canvassing the city the first of the week. Look at his samples. C. E. McCLEAN.

was an enormously fleshy old sister
who was fond in her expressions of
enthusiasm with which her heaving
bosom was filled and was shouting
"Hurrah for McKinley" at the top
most altitude of her stentorian vocal
organs. It was there that George
saw his chance, and stepping up to
the old woman he pointed out Mr.
Nance, and said: "That is our
new president; that's Mr. Mc-Kinley." No sooner had he
spoken than the old lady
made a dive for the side of the carriage, reached in and grabbed Mr.
Nance by the hand and congratulated
him on his success and expressed her
joy thereat. She also dilated at
length on the great benefits of a gold
standard currency and ran down a
silver basis as a most reprehensible
policy as she trudged beside the vehicle. Whether it was that Mr.
Nance was embarrassed at being in-
terrupted by an undistinguished person-
age or was weary of the old woman's
chatter, he ran his hand in his
pocket and gave her a dollar.

MANY TIMES A WITNESS.

Yet City Physician Trontman
Never Succeeded in Getting
Anything for It.

"I have been here nearly four
years," remarked City Physician
Trontman this morning at the city
hall, "and have testified at every
term of the circuit court, nearly
every one of the county courts and
an infinite number of times in the police and magistrates' courts."
"Well, what about it?" asked
some one.

"Nothing," was the reply, "except
that I never did receive a cent for
the time and trouble I took to appear as a witness. I got paid one
day and concluded that I never
would testify again. I paid no attention to a summons and the next
thing I knew they had me arrested
on an attachment."

The doctor left at this juncture for
the court house, presumably to testify again.

Get the best. St. Bernard Coal,
St. Bernard Silver Coal, Phil-
burgh Coal and Anthracite Coal
from the St. Bernard Coal Co., incorporated, 423 Broadway.
Telephone No. 8. Oct. 21

HE'S INOFFENSIVE.

But She Wants a Divorce Just the Same.

Mrs. Lula P. Hamline today
brought suit in the circuit court
against her husband, George Ham-
line, for divorce.

They are well known residents of
the county, and have been married
for several years.

She is a good looking young
woman and in her petition charges
her husband with being an idle, in-
offensive, good-for-nothing sort of a fellow.

Non-support is the plea.

Try the old reliable St. Bernard
Coal and get the best, if you want
the most burn for the money. St.
Bernard Coal Co., incorporated,
423 Broadway. Telephone No. 8.
Oct. 21

Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey cures
coughs for young and old. Most
cough medicines simply helps you
cough. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey
helps you not to cough. See the difference? Would you like to try
it? 25 cents gets you the biggest
quarter bottle of cough medicine you
ever saw. It is particularly valuable
for those who can not stand the
strain of coughing. Ask your druggist for it. Take no substitute.
There is nothing so good as Dr. Bell's
Pine Tar Honey. Sold by Ochs-
enger & Walker.

Subscribe for the Six and induce
your neighbor to do the same.

Bob Austin had his
of way bills and a long
of ears in his train as he waved
the "high ball" to his eagle eye this
a. m. You can bet that Bob "will
get there."

It is said that Engineer Sany Her-
ring is hankering after his first love
and is talking of purchasing a steam-
boat. Too many boats choking
stumps now, Sandy. Better stick
to the rails.

Judge "Bill" Reed, of Benton,
and Mr. A. B. Lamb, of Paris,
Tenn., two of the company's favorite attorneys, went out on No. 50
last p. m. They are at present defending the company's interests in
the U. S. court here.

The party who went over to the
"deep tangled wildwood" of Mas-
sac on a hunting expedition "yesterday" returned about dark. The sum
total of their spoils was two sapsuck-
ers and a pocketful of pecans, but
they say they had lots of fun.

Gen. Manager Thomas, a number
of other officials, and a party of invited guests passed over the road
yesterday from Nashville to Memphis
on a hunting and fishing camping expedition at Horn Lake, Miss.
They occupied Manager Thomas'
special car, and it took three large
transfer wagons to transport their
outfit.

Engineer Ben Rodgers on the 306
came in away ahead of time yester-
day with his face shaved as clean as
a snowflake and sleek as slippery elm
juice. The boys say he sacrificed
his Napoleonic hairstyle in payment
of a wager he made on the late election. Turn them out again Ben and
ambush that envy below your nasal
feature.

Billy Kane tells a good joke on one
of the boys who formerly drove an
express wagon. His horse was almost as thin as a vapor, and he was
guzzled by the other jehus' unmerciful-
ly. One day he came into the store
where Billy was counter hopping and
bought a nickel's worth of corn and
dime's worth of hay, gave it to his
horse and said, "Now eat till you
burst!"

Since the transfer hoats ceased
using the incline that institution has
a deserted appearance, and has be-
come the favorite hang out for the
feather dandies, as with pole, line and
seductive bait, he entices the flimsy
tribe to change their place of residence from the limpid waters of the
placid Tennessee to the seething frying pan.

Dodgers announcing the appearance of the "Kentucky Colonel" under the name of "Chock full up"
to be muzzled" are out. It is to be
in pamphlet form and issued each Sunday morning by the "Kentucky
Colonel Publishing Co." of the city.
Should it be loaded with choice literature as heavily as we have seen this
namesake on various occasions, we
predict a long and extensive "jag"
for it.

Geo. Gaies, he of the tank flag
renewed, tells a good joke on Mr.
Jno. Nance, the bent blacksmith, for
whom he wields the sledge. George
says that in the grand parade last Tuesday night Mr. Nance occupied
with several friends a prominent
place in the procession seated in a
carriage with a stovepipe chapeau
covering his hairless cranium. A few days prior to the jubilee Mr.
Nance, thinking that the few gray
hairs interspersed among the golden
threads of his heavy mustache gave
him too venerable a look, had the
tonorial artist to remove it. When
he appeared at the shops Monday
morning it was the general remark
that he bore a striking resemblance
to the pictures of his political idol, McKinley, and he did make a fair
appearance as the procession wound
its way along the streets under the
electric lights, and amid the flashes
of the many colored pyrotechnics.
At the corner of Ninth and Broad-
way an immense crowd of colored
people were congregated to witness
the parade.

Runaway Boys.
A telegram was received at police
headquarters this afternoon from Mr.
M. M. Marshall, of Dyersburg, ask-
ing that a lookout be kept for his two
sons and a colored boy who ran away
from home last night. Nothing has been seen of them here.

Made Settlement Today.
Ex-Sheriff R. P. Stanley today
made settlement with the count-
y. He was paid $1,000 for his service, and the county was paid $1,000
for his services.

Bob Austin had his
of way bills and a long
of ears in his train as he waved
the "high ball" to his eagle eye this
a. m. You can bet that Bob "will
get there."

It is said that Engineer Sany Her-
ring is hankering after his first love
and is talking of purchasing a steam-
boat. Too many boats choking
stumps now, Sandy. Better stick
to the rails.

Judge "Bill" Reed, of Benton,
and Mr. A. B. Lamb, of Paris,
Tenn., two of the company's favorite attorneys, went out on No. 50
last p. m. They are at present defending the company's interests in
the U. S. court here.

The party who went over to the
"deep tangled wildwood" of Mas-
sac on a hunting expedition "yesterday" returned about dark. The sum
total of their spoils was two sapsuck-
ers and a pocketful of pecans, but
they say they had lots of fun.

Gen. Manager Thomas, a number
of other officials, and a party of invited guests passed over the road
yesterday from Nashville to Memphis
on a hunting and fishing camping expedition at Horn Lake, Miss.
They occupied Manager Thomas'
special car, and it took three large
transfer wagons to transport their
outfit.

Engineer Ben Rodgers on the 306
came in away ahead of time yester-
day with his face shaved as clean as
a snowflake and sleek as slippery elm
juice. The boys say he sacrificed
his Napoleonic hairstyle in payment
of a wager he made on the late election. Turn them out again Ben and
ambush that envy below your nasal
feature.

Billy Kane tells a good joke on one
of the boys who formerly drove an
express wagon. His horse was almost as thin as a vapor, and he was
guzzled by the other jehus' unmerciful-
ly. One day he came into the store
where Billy was counter hopping and
bought a nickel's worth of corn and
dime's worth of hay, gave it to his
horse and said, "Now eat till you
burst!"

Since the transfer hoats ceased
using the incline that institution has
a deserted appearance, and has be-
come the favorite hang out for the
feather dandies, as with pole, line and
seductive bait, he entices the flimsy
tribe to change their place of residence from the limpid waters of the
placid Tennessee to the seething frying pan.

Dodgers announcing the appearance of the "Kentucky Colonel" under the name of "Chock full up"
to be muzzled" are out. It is to be
in pamphlet form and issued each Sunday morning by the "Kentucky
Colonel Publishing Co." of the city.
Should it be loaded with choice literature as heavily as we have seen this
namesake on various occasions, we
predict a long and extensive "jag"
for it.

Geo. Gaies, he of the tank flag
renewed, tells a good joke on Mr.
Jno. Nance, the bent blacksmith, for
whom he wields the sledge. George
says that in the grand parade last Tuesday night Mr. Nance occupied
with several friends a prominent
place in the procession seated in a
carriage with a stovepipe chapeau
covering his hairless cranium. A few days prior to the jubilee Mr.
Nance, thinking that the few gray
hairs interspersed among the golden
threads of his heavy mustache gave
him too venerable a look, had the
tonorial artist to remove it. When
he appeared at the shops Monday
morning it was the general remark
that he bore a striking resemblance
to the pictures of his political idol, McKinley, and he did make a fair
appearance as the procession wound
its way along the streets under the
electric lights, and amid the flashes
of the many colored pyrotechnics.
At the corner of Ninth and Broad-
way an immense crowd of colored
people were congregated to witness
the parade.

Runaway Boys.
A telegram was received at police
headquarters this afternoon from Mr.
M. M. Marshall, of Dyersburg, ask-
ing that a lookout be kept for his two
sons and a colored boy who ran away
from home last night. Nothing has been seen of them here.

Made Settlement Today.
Ex-Sheriff R. P. Stanley today
made settlement with the count-
y. He was paid $1,000 for his service, and the county was paid $1,000
for his services.

Bob Austin had his
of way bills and a long
of ears in his train as he waved
the "high ball" to his eagle eye this
a. m. You can bet that Bob "will
get there."

It is said that Engineer Sany Her-
ring is hankering after his first love
and is talking of purchasing a steam-
boat. Too many boats choking
stumps now, Sandy. Better stick
to the rails.

Judge "Bill" Reed, of Benton,
and Mr. A. B. Lamb, of Paris,
Tenn., two of the company's favorite attorneys, went out on No. 50
last p. m. They are at present defending the company's interests in
the U. S. court here.

The party who went over to the
"deep tangled wildwood" of Mas-
sac on a hunting expedition "yesterday" returned about dark. The sum
total of their spoils was two sapsuck-
ers and a pocketful of pecans, but
they say they had lots of fun.

Gen. Manager Thomas, a number
of other officials, and a party of invited guests passed over the road
yesterday from Nashville to Memphis
on a hunting and fishing camping expedition at Horn Lake, Miss.
They occupied Manager Thomas'
special car, and it took three large
transfer wagons to transport their
outfit.

Engineer Ben Rodgers on the 306
came in away ahead of time yester-
day with his face shaved as clean as
a snowflake and sleek as slippery elm
juice. The boys say he sacrificed
his Napoleonic hairstyle in payment
of a wager he made on the late election. Turn them out again Ben and
ambush that envy below your nasal
feature.

Billy Kane tells a good joke on one
of the boys who formerly drove an
express wagon. His horse was almost as thin as a vapor, and he was
guzzled by the other jehus' unmerciful-
ly. One day he came into the store
where Billy was counter hopping and
bought a nickel's worth of corn and
dime's worth of hay, gave it to his
horse and said, "Now eat till you
burst!"

Since the transfer hoats ceased
using the incline that institution has
a deserted appearance, and has be-
come the favorite hang out for the
feather dandies, as with pole, line and
seductive bait, he entices the flimsy
tribe to change their place of residence from the limpid waters of the
placid Tennessee to the seething frying pan.

Dodgers announcing the appearance of the "Kentucky Colonel" under the name of "Chock full up"
to be muzzled" are out. It is to be
in pamphlet form and issued each Sunday morning by the "Kentucky
Colonel Publishing Co." of the city.
Should it be loaded with choice literature as heavily as we have seen this
namesake on various occasions, we
predict a long and extensive "jag"
for it.

Geo. Gaies, he of the tank flag
renewed, tells a good joke on Mr.
Jno. Nance, the bent blacksmith, for
whom he wields the sledge. George
says that in the grand parade last Tuesday night Mr. Nance occupied
with several friends a prominent
place in the procession seated in a
carriage with a stovepipe chapeau
covering his hairless cranium. A few days prior to the jubilee Mr.
Nance, thinking that the few gray
hairs interspersed among the golden
threads of his heavy mustache gave
him too venerable a look, had the
tonorial artist to remove it. When
he appeared at the shops Monday
morning it was the general remark
that he bore a striking resemblance
to the pictures of his political idol, McKinley, and he did make a fair
appearance as the procession wound
its way along the streets under the
electric lights, and amid the flashes
of the many colored pyrotechnics.
At the corner of Ninth and Broad-
way an immense crowd of colored
people were congregated to witness
the parade.

Runaway Boys.
A telegram was received at police
headquarters this afternoon from Mr.
M. M. Marshall, of Dyersburg, ask-
ing that a lookout be kept for his two
sons and a colored boy who ran away
from home last night. Nothing has been seen of them here.

Made Settlement Today.
Ex-Sheriff R. P. Stanley today
made settlement with the count-
y. He was paid $1,000 for his service, and the county was paid $1,000
for his services.

Ellis, Rudy
Phillips.

On this Sunday,
the 14th of November,
we will give away a
ticket free to every person who brings
this coupon to our store.

On the 14th of November,
we will give away a
ticket free to every person who brings
this coupon to our store.